

Yang Ming Chiao Tung University Directions for Enrollment of Exchange Students

Approved at the 2nd Academic Affairs Meeting of the 2021 Academic Year on December 16, 2021

1. These Directions have been hereby formulated to handle the enrollment of Taiwan college exchange students applying for elective courses at Yang Ming Chiao Tung University ("NYCU").
2. The number of exchange students in each grade level that may be accepted by each department/institute shall not exceed 15% of the original approved quota for enrollment. The qualifications of exchange students for admission shall be negotiated and agreed upon by and between the relevant department/institute and the Office of Academic Affairs.
3. Each exchange student may apply for taking elective courses only for one academic year per application.
4. Exchange students shall follow the same procedures for course registration as those applicable to the students of the department to which they apply for taking elective courses, except as otherwise specified in other special rules.
5. Exchange students should pay their tuition fee to NYCU. The tuition fee for exchange students shall be twice the tuition payable by the students at NYCU. Regardless of the number of courses attended, the tuition fee payable by exchange students shall be calculated as follows: for bachelor programs, it shall be calculated based on 15 credits per semester; for masters and doctoral programs, it shall be calculated based on 8 credits per semester. Exchange students wishing to take summer courses shall comply with NYCU's regulations regarding the enrollment of summer courses.
6. Exchange students shall be solely responsible for paying their own elective courses fees, which shall be credited to NYCU's tuition and miscellaneous revenues.
7. Exchange students are entitled to use NYCU's library and pay for the use of its gym and Internet resources in the same way as NYCU students.
8. The test results of exchange students will be sent to their original university by the Division of Registrar of NYCU at the end of each semester.
9. For the universities that have signed an academic cooperation agreement with NYCU, the regulations governing their exchange students earning credit at NYCU shall be formulated in accordance with such agreement.
10. These Directions have been implemented after being approved by an Academic Affairs Meeting. The same applies to any amendment hereto.
