

Chih-Yuan, Lin

Adjunct Assistant Professor

Neurologist

Medical Sociologist

Profile

Dr. Chih-Yuan, Lin MD, MSc, PhD

Neurologist, Taipei City Hospital, Linsen Chinese Medicine Branch

Adjunct Assistant Professor

Institute of Health and Welfare Policy, School of Medicine,

National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University

Employment History

Director, Department of Neurology, Taipei City Hospital,

Linsen Chinese Medicine Branch, Taipei, Taiwan

October 2016 – now

- Neurologist
- Neurocritical care specialist
- Sleep medicine specialist
- Home care medicine specialist
- Palliative care team

Department of Education and Research, Taipei City Hospital,
Yangming Branch

March 2015 – September 2016

- Director
- Acute coma and cognitive disorders
- Cognitive disorders nonpharmaceutical interventions

Education

PhD, Institute of Health and Welfare Policy, School of Medicine,

National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University Taipei, Taiwan

September 2012 – June 2020

- Health and welfare policy
- Emergency care behavior and policy
- Evidence-based health care policy
- Health services research
- Scoping review, systematic review, and meta-analysis

MSc, Institute of Behavioral Sciences, Kaohsiung Medical College

Kaohsiung, Taiwan

August 1993 – June 1995

- Medical sociology and behavioral sciences

Course

Medical sociology

Skills

General Neurology

Medical Sociology

Health Services Research

Evidence-based Health Care

SAS Programming